

Perl
vogue

Italy is a very fashion-conscious
country

The Perl
Community
is very fashion-conscious
too

OK

Maybe not
THAT
kind of fashion

But we care about the modules
we use

If you're seen
using last year's module

People will point and laugh

Who still uses...

Fashionable
modules
change

How do you
keep up to date?

Noone wants to be seen using last season's
modules

The (real)
fashion world
has magazines

Maybe
we need something similar

Something
to tell us what to think

Imagine
the articles

“Have you made
time for

It might look a bit like this
